

REOCH, William Arthur, husband of the late Aileen Reoch (Chisholm), died August 11, 1984, in the Saugeen Memorial Hospital in his 85th year.

Left to mourn his passing are a daughter, Margaret, of Glanworth, and her husband, Lloyd Green, and two sons, Allan, of Listowel, and his wife, Lois, and William, of Saugeen, and his wife, Merilyn.

Mr. Reoch was the loving grandfather of Allan Green, Glanworth, Laurie (Mrs. Trevor Carter), Glanworth, Leigh (Mrs. Doug Jones), Lambeth, Lesley (Mrs. Larry Henderson), Cambridge (H), Lorell Reoch, Kitchener, and Mary Laurealeen Reoch, Listowel. He is also remembered by step-grandchildren Alvin Miskie, Toronto, David and Daniel Miskie, Dundalk, Bonnie Rands, Chesley, Jeff Miskie, Thornbury, Deborah, Donald and Scott Miskie at home. Great grandchildren Anthony, Terry and Matthew Carter, Chad Green, Eddie and Danny Jones, Jeremy and Jessica Henderson and Corina and Christonda Rands, also survived by one sister, Mrs. George (Effie) Sultherland, of Ripley.

The late Mr. Reoch was born April 13, 1900, to James and Katherine (Alexander) Reoch in Sydenham Township. In 1910 the family moved to Saugeen Township, where the deceased received his education at S.S. No. 4. A farmer, Mr. Reoch married his beloved wife Aileen, on September 2, 1925, and together the couple farmed in Saugeen and Bruce Townships and were members of Wesley United Church. In 1975 the couple celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Saugeen.

Mr. Reoch was also predeceased by three infant sons, three brothers, James, John and Robert and by three sisters, Janet Mahaffy, Nellie Campbell and Catherine Reoch.

obituary

Funeral services were held from the W. Kent Milroy Funeral Home, Port Elgin, on August 14, 1984, with Rev. Richard Hollingsworth officiating. Pallbearers were Allan Green, Lorell Reoch, Trevor Carter, Doug Jones, Larry Henderson and Donald Miskie. Flowerbearers included Harry Schildroth, Richard Fenton, Russell Smith, Wally Pollock and Jack Riley. Interment was in Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin.

Hamilton, William

On April 19, 1990 at the Southampton Nursing Home, William Hamilton, formerly of Bruce Township, in his 92nd year. He is survived by brothers Harold, Mel and Irwin and by several nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. Mr. Hamilton was predeceased by brothers George, Alvin and Royal and by sisters Marie, Violet and Donelda. He was born in Bruce Township, a son to Lambert and Annie Hamilton. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 340, Port Elgin. The branch held a memorial service for Mr. Hamilton on Sunday. Funeral services were held April 23rd from the W. Kent Milroy Funeral chapel with the Rev. Gordon Williams officiating. Pallbearers were Bob Atkinson, Jim Nelson, Wes Chappell, Bert Brown, Jack Frost and Tony Tonegusso. Interment was at Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin. Donations to the Canadian Diabetes Association or the Ontario Heart and Stroke Foundation would be appreciated.

CLAZIE, Jack — The death occurred in Windsor, on November 7, of Jack Clazie. He was born October 30, 1892, on Lot 11, Concession 5, Saugeen, the eldest of the seven children of James and Mary (Leeder) Clazie. He attended S.S. 4 Saugeen and Port Elgin high school. Upon graduation, he worked for the Busy Times, Port Elgin, and taught school in Northern Ontario. He fought overseas during the First World War as a member of the 160th Bruce Battalion. Upon his return to Canada, he worked for the C.N.R. until his retirement.

In 1926 he married Frances May, who survives him, as do two children, John, of Victoria, B.C., and Marjorie Fullerton, of Newark, N.J. There are six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Also surviving are two sisters, Martha, Mrs. D.G. MacDonald, of Agincourt, and Margery, of Harrison. He was predeceased by brothers, Ed, Grant and Jim and a sister, Pearl, Mrs. Nelson Ribey.

For many years, Jack Clazie was a faithful and active member of Central United Church, in Windsor. Funeral services were conducted from the Morris Funeral Home, Windsor, on November 10, by the Rev. Nettie Hoffman. Interment was in Greenhill Cemetery, Kingsville.

obituary

THOMAS: Robert Harvey at his residence in Saugeen Township, on Monday, January 26, 1987. Robert Harvey Thomas of R.R. 5, Paisley, in his 65th year. Beloved brother of Catherine, Mrs. Harold Cassidy of Bruce Township and Grace, Mrs. Colin Belore of Ingersoll. Sadly missed by several nieces and nephews. Predeceased by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas of Saugeen Township. Funeral service was held on Wednesday, January 28, 1987, at 3:30 p.m. from the Kent Milroy Funeral Chapel, Port Elgin. Pallbearers included Wallace Hammond, Ernest Cluley, Steward Esplen, Irving Keyes, Jim Belore, and Robert Leeder. Flower bearers included Donald Cassidy, Alex Sim, Andrew Catto, Kent Lamont, Tom Belore and Charles Kelly. Spring interment, Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin. Donations to the Diabetic Association were appreciated as expressions of sympathy.

obituary

SMITH, Ethel Jean: Mrs. Ethel Jean Smith, the former Ethel Jean Christie passed away at the age of 93 in the Stratford Hospital on Saturday evening, September 1, 1984. She was the daughter of Gilbert and Jeanie Christie, of Saugeen Township, and was predeceased by her parents, four brothers and one sister.

Mrs. Smith trained for a nurse in Stratford Hospital in 1923. She was married to James A. Smith in 1928 and they farmed in Downie Township near Sebringville, where she also carried on her nursing career in her home until they retired in 1962. Mrs. Smith was predeceased by her husband in March, 1963, but remained in her home until she moved to Spruce Lodge Nursing Home in December, 1977.

The funeral service was held on Monday, September 3, from the Wayne Young Funeral Home in Stratford and Rev. MacNeill of Avon-ton Church officiated.

Mrs. Smith was a very conscientious nurse and an active member of Avon-ton

obituary

MCGILLIVRAY, Edward Ross at the age of 66, died at his home in Owen Sound on August 15, 1987. Born on March 7, 1922, in Saugeen Township to John McGillivray and Ruby Nicholson, he was the former owner of Sunshine Laundromat in Port Elgin and later associated with Royal City Real Estate in Owen Sound. In the Canadian Armed Forces from 1941 to 1945 and 1952 to 1972, he lived in such diverse locations as North Bruce, Orillia, Victoria, B.C., and Phoenix, Arizona. He is survived by his mother, his wife Jane Kreutswaiser, a son Doug and his wife Dale of Mesa, Arizona, daughters Jo Anne (Mrs. Edward Pfeifle) of Brentwood Bay, B.C. and Barbara (Mrs. Michael Dault) of Oshawa, a sister Agnes Thompson of Kincardine and seven grandchildren Lisa, Trisha and Michelle McGillivray, Paula and David Pfeifle, and Shayne and Justin Dault. The Royal Canadian Legion Branch 340, Port Elgin, held a memorial service in the chapel on Monday evening, August 17. Funeral services were held Tuesday, August 18 at W. Kent Milroy Funeral Chapel, Port Elgin, with the Reverend Fred Jackson of the Southampton United Church officiating. Pallbearers were Bruce McGillivray, Donald Falconer, Donald Lamont, Keith Thede, Murdock McRitchie and Joe Wark. Interment took place at Sanctuary Park Cemetery, Port Elgin.

CLULEY—George, suddenly at Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital on Saturday, October 13th, 1984 in his 82nd year. George Cluley of Port Elgin. Beloved husband of the former Evelyn Detwiler. Dear father of Ken of Thornhill and Mary Harcourt of Kitchener. Dear grandfather of Jodi and Krista Harcourt. Brother of Hannah (Mrs. Jim Maas) of Port Elgin. Predeceased by three sisters and one brother. Friends may call at the W. Kent Milroy Port Elgin Chapel, 510 Mill Street, Port Elgin after 2:00pm Sunday. Funeral service in the chapel Monday at 2:00pm. Interment Sanctuary Park Cemetery, Port Elgin. Donations to Gideon Memorial Bibles would be appreciated as expressions of sympathy.

obituary

Seaman Marie: of Port Elgin, suddenly on Monday, January 25, 1988 in her 72nd year. The former Mar Brunton, beloved wife of the late Donald Seaman. Dear mother of Audrey (Mrs. Darre) Leybourne of Don Mills, Erie of London, Clifford of Port Elgin, Mark of Port Elgin and Donna (Mrs. Barry White) of Waterloo. Survived also by nine grandchildren, one great-grandchild and two sisters Beulah Munro of Tiverton and Eva (Mrs. Bill Blakely) of Largo, Florida. Predeceased by one son Bruce and Alex and Jim Brunton. Funeral service was held at the Tolmie Memorial Presbyterian Church, Interment Sanctuary Park Cemetery. Memorial donations to the Saugeen Memorial Hospital, the Tolmie Memorial Church Organ Fund or the Port Elgin Arena Fund would be appreciated as expressions of sympathy. 2B7P

obituary

Wieck: Floyd, a former mayor, reeve and councillor in Kincardine, died Sunday, Feb. 28. He was in his 88th year. Mr. Wieck is survived by wife Reta, sister Della and niece Connie Trelford and family. Floyd and his wife Reta moved to Kincardine in the early 1920s and never left. He worked at the Coleman Packing Company until it left town and then he worked at the Malcolm Furniture factory for 30 years. He retired 19 years ago. Mr. Wieck has always been active in the community. He spent 20 years on town council - six as a councillor, five as mayor and nine as reeve. He retired from politics in 1978. He was a steward and elder in the United Church, Noble Grand in the Kincardine Odd-fellows Lodge and a District Deputy Grand Master. After he retired from politics, he became involved in the Merry Kin Club and served as president for seven years. In his younger years, Mr. Wieck was active as a ball umpire. In an interview a year ago, Mr. Wieck said, "the town's been good to me. If it wasn't I wouldn't have spent 20 years on council." He and Reta celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary on Feb. 22. The funeral service for Mr. Wieck was held Wednesday, March 2, at 2 p.m. at the Davey Linklater Funeral Home.

Ribey, Lettie Winnifred

On February 13, 1988 at the Grey Bruce Regional Health Centre, Owen Sound, Lettie Winnifred Ribey of Port Elgin in her 90th year. Dear mother of Kenneth and Tom. Mrs. Ribey is also survived by a sister Blanche (Mrs. Will Williams) of Port Elgin, ten grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband Stanley and a son Alan. Mrs. Ribey was born on August 18, 1898 in Amabel Township. She was a member of the Port Elgin United Church and that church's U.C.W. Funeral services were held February 16 from the W. Kent Milroy Funeral Chapel, Port Elgin with the Rev. Williams officiating. Pallbearers were John Rushton, Edgar Thede, Ross Williams, Jack Ribey, Murray Ribey and George Ribey. Interment will be at Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin.

obituary

MacDonald, Mrs. Elizabeth "Bessie"

On October 30, 1987 at the Grey Bruce Regional Health Centre, Owen Sound, Elizabeth MacDonald of Southampton in her 83rd year. Predeceased by her husband Angus, a sister Ann Currie, and brothers Ross and Jim Currie. Mrs. MacDonald is survived by several nieces and nephews. She was born in Bruce Township on October 14, 1905, a daughter to the now deceased Dan Currie and Sarah Ross. She was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Southampton, and was very active in the Ladies Aid and Evening Auxiliaries of that church. Funeral services were held November 2 from the W. Kent Milroy Funeral Chapel, Port Elgin with the Rev. Douglas Gordon officiating. Pallbearers were Bill Cowling, Dick Wentworth, Dr. Murray Flock, Jack Otto, Charlie Kelly, and Ralph Brubacher. Flowerbearers were Peter, Paul and Jim Brubacher and Cindy Rushton. Interment was at Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin.

Anthes, Marie N.

On October 22, 1987 at the Saugeen Memorial Hospital, Southampton, Marie Anthes of Port Elgin in her 87th year. Predeceased by her husband Frank Sherwood Anthes. Dear mother of Robert of Southampton. Mrs. Anthes is also survived by sisters Hilda (Mrs. Harold Sutherland) of Port Elgin and Gladys (Mrs. Albert Haycock) of Owen Sound, and by grandchildren Robin and Michael Anthes of Southampton. She was predeceased by brothers Howard and Stewart and a sister Teresa (Mrs. Heather Robertson). Mrs. Anthes was born on March 18, 1901 in Saugeen Township, a daughter to the now deceased Charles Nelson and Mary Cassidy. Mrs. Anthes was a nurse by profession. She was a member of the United Church of Canada, the U.C.W. and the lawn bowling club. Funeral services were held October 25th from the W. Kent Milroy Funeral Chapel, Port Elgin with the Rev. Gordon Williams officiating. Interment was at Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin.

obituary

Howe, C. Isobell

On March 29, 1988 at the Saugeen Memorial Hospital, Southampton, C. Isobell Howe of Port Elgin in her 84th year. Dear wife of the late Wesley Howe. Beloved mother of daughter Gwendolyn (Mrs. Robert Wilson) of Port Elgin. Mrs. Howe is also survived by grandchildren Colleen Franky (and her husband Mable) of Kincardine, Darren Howe of Kincardine, Murray Wilson (and wife Cindy) of Port Elgin, Alan Wilson of Port Elgin, Cynthia Wilson of Toronto, Susan Ferguson (and husband Steven) of Edmonton, Sandra Ribey (and husband Robert) of Bruce Township, and by eight great-grandchildren. She is also survived by a brother Chambers MacKinnon (and his wife Lillian) and a sister Archetta Brocklebank (and her husband Stanley). Mrs. Howe was predeceased by a son Veslie. She was born on June 2, 1904, in Bruce Township. She farmed in the Bruce Township with her husband until retiring to Port Elgin in 1979. She was a member of the Wesley and Port Elgin United churches, and was a life member of the United Church Women. She was a charter member of the South Saugeen Women's Institute and was honored in 1986 for her many years of service to that organization. She had also been active as a 4H leader in many clubs. Funeral services were held April 1 from the W. Kent Milroy Funeral Chapel, Port Elgin with the Rev. Gordon Williams officiating. Pallbearers were Bruce McGillivray, Jack Ribey, Ken Ribey, Murray Ribey, Don McCulloch, and Arlie Virtue. Interment will be at Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin.