

BOYD - THOMPSON

Exchange Vows

Tolmie Memorial Presbyterian church was the setting for the lovely wedding of Diane Thompson to Kenneth Boyd on Saturday afternoon, July 24th, 1971.

Rev. Maurice McNabb heard their vows at the altar decorated with white daisies and gladioli and Mrs. Evelyn Doll, Port Elgin, played the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson of R. R. #5, Paisley. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boyd of R. R. #1, Meaford.

A polyester satin gown with lace bodice was worn by the bride, and with this she had a shoulder length veil. Her lovely ensemble was completed by a ring head piece trimmed in lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis.

The bride was attended by Kathleen Hateley, dressed in a floor length gown of mauves and yellows on a white background. She carried yellow and white daisies tied with yellow and mauve ribbons.

Mr. Bob Clark, of Guelph, was the groom's best man and the ushering was conducted by Mr. George Thompson of Paisley and Mr. Glen Boyd of Meaford.

At the reception, held at Cedarbrook Lodge, the bride's mother received gowned in a short blue embossed double knit dress, with navy accessories, and wearing a corsage of pink carnations.

Assisting her, the groom's mother chose a blue flowered chiffon dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

The bride changed to a short blue and white crepe dress with black accessories and wore a white gardenia corsage when she and the groom left for a honeymoon trip to Algonquin Park and Muskoka.

Upon their return they plan to live in Petrolia, Ontario.

Guests at the wedding were from Port Elgin, London, Durham,

Meaford, Guelph, Whitby, Markdale, Port Dover, Burgessville, Dundalk, Paisley and Goderich.

CLULEY - KELSO
To reside in Port Elgin

Emmanuel Baptist Church, Barrie was decorated with autumn-toned chrysanthemums for the Saturday, October 7th ceremony at 2:30 p.m., which united in marriage Sharon Anne Kelso, daughter of Mr. Charles Edward Kelso of Barrie and Ernest Austin Cluley, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin James Cluley of Port Elgin. The exchanging of vows was heard by Rev. Alfred Rees of Toronto. The guest soloist was Miss Linda Cluley of Durham, a cousin of the groom, and Mr. Paul Peterson of Barrie was the organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a Victorian styled gown of polyester sota peau with lace encircling the stand-up collar and accenting the bishop sleeves. A lace trimmed train adorned the Victorian styled dress. The veil was of the wedding lace, accented by three white roses and lily-of-the-valley.

The bride carried her mother's white Bible of twenty five years ago, accented with gold chrysanthemums, white streamers and ivory.

The matron of honour was Jean Hood of Alliston, and attendants were Annette Wilcox of Toronto and Joanne Cluley of Port Elgin.
