

DONALD F. CHRISTIE

A former reeve and councillor in Saugeen Township for 12 years died Friday, December 22, at the Saugeen Memorial Hospital in Southampton in his 86th year.

Donald Ferguson Christie, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Christie, was born at Turners in Saugeen Township and farmed all his life on the home farm until his retirement at which time he moved to Port Elgin eight years ago. He attended Dunblane Presbyterian Church and served as elder for many years, later becoming a member of Tolmie Memorial Presbyterian Church.

In 1936 he married the former Helen Hamilton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton of Paisley.

Mrs. Christie survives with two daughters, Mary Jean, Mrs. Ralph Kralik of Brampton, and Donna at home. Also surviving are two sisters, Ethel, Mrs. James A. Smith of Stratford, and Helen, Mrs. George Shand of Dundalk, and five grandchildren. He was predeceased by one sister and three brothers.

MRS. ALBERT SCHELL, Lifelong Resident of the Area, passes in her 78th year

Mrs. Bert Schell, North Bruce, passed away in the Saugeen Memorial Hospital, Southampton, on Saturday, June 3rd, 1972, following an illness of four days.

Mrs. Schell was born on the 8th of Bruce, in 1894, and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dobson. She was married in 1918 on June 28th.

She was a lifetime resident of Bruce Township and was a member of Wesley United Church.

Her husband, predeceased her some years ago.

Surviving is a son, Woodrow, of North Bruce, a sister, Mrs. Janet MacDonald of Port Elgin, a brother, John Dobson of Regina Beach, Sask., and six grandchildren. A daughter, Marion, died shortly after birth.

Funeral services were held from the Davey Funeral Chapel, on Monday, June 5th, 1972, conducted by her pastor, Mr. G. McAuslan.

Also surviving are seven grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren, a sister (Jean) Mrs. Edwin Barnes, Port Elgin and three brothers, Basil, Toronto, Waldo, Port Elgin and Ormand, Southampton.

Mrs. Reoch was also predeceased by an infant son and a son Wallace, one grandchild and one sister (Alma) Mrs. Ed Calvert.

The late Mrs. Reoch was a member of the Port Elgin United Church and the South Saugeen Women's Institute.

Funeral service was conducted from the Davey Funeral Chapel on Monday, March 26th with burial in Sanctuary Park.

Elizabeth Scott. A brother, James Scott and two sisters, Mrs. Georgena Pollock and Miss Catharine Scott predeceased her.

Funeral service was on Friday, April 6th, 1973 from the Davey Funeral Chapel, with service conducted by Rev. R. Douglas MacDonald.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Jack Bell, Bob Atkinson, Bob Bell, Fred Middleton, Willard Scott and David Smith.

Flower bearers were Frank Bell, Walker Daniel, George Atkinson and Stephen Wetmore.

Interment was in Sanctuary Park Cemetery, Port Elgin.

MRS. W. LEEDER

Sadie Leeder, widow of the late Walter Leeder passed away in Saugeen Memorial Hospital, Southampton on Thursday, February 15th, 1973 following an illness of one and a half years.

She was in her 74th year.

Mrs. Leeder was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George McKillop, and was born on the second Concession of Saugeen.

She came to Port Elgin to reside eighteen years ago.

She attended the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Port Elgin, and was a charter member of South Saugeen Women's Institute.

One son, Leslie, of Port Elgin survives.

She was predeceased by a sister, Christina, Mrs. Bert Dunlop and a brother, Arthur.

Funeral service was held from the Davey Funeral Chapel on Saturday, February 17th, 1973 conducted by Bishop James Crum and Elder Alex Kahtava.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Stewart Karcher, Frank Dawson, Harold Sieffert, Russel Eby, Wilfred Sumpton and Harvey Roppell.

Flowerbearers were Bob Leeder, Allan McKillop, George McCarell, Ross Dunlop and Alma Leeder.

Interment was in Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin.

Death Notice

HERRON, Della Jane --- passed away at Beacon Hill Lodge, Hamilton, on Monday, May 14th, 1973, daughter of the late Richard and Emma Herron, sister of J.C.H. and George Herron. Miss Herron spent her girlhood at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sutherland, Con. 3, Saugeen Township, and attended No. 5 school and St. Andrew's Church. She was a former nurse with C.N.I.B., and a member of Metropolitan United Church. Surviving are several nieces and nephews. Funeral service was held at the Dodsworth and Brown Funeral Chapel on May 17th. Cremation followed.

MRS. JOSIAH KOLB

Mrs. Josiah Kolb, the former Melinda L. Christmann, died November 21st, 1974 at the Sunnydale Nursing Home, Stayner, in her 92nd year.

She was the wife of the late Josiah Kolb and sister of Maude Mrs. James Cluley, Port Elgin.

Funeral service and Committal were held at the Crawford Funeral Home, Creemore, on Monday, November 25th at 1:00 p.m., and was in charge of the United Church in Creemore.

Interment was in Sanctuary Park Cemetery, Port Elgin.

Those attending were from Port Elgin, Durham, Winnipeg, Guelph Stayner and community.

MRS. JAMES REOCH

Mrs. James Reoch passed away at Saugeen Memorial Hospital on March 24th, 1973 in her 79th year.

Formerly Felicia Wallace, she was the daughter of the late Thomas and Jane Wallace and was born at Greenville in Grey County, moving to Bruce County at an early age. She taught school in the area until her marriage to James A. Reoch in 1920. Mr. Reoch predeceased her in 1962.

Left to mourn her passing are two daughters, (Jean) Mrs. Dick Fenton and (Alma) Mrs. Eric Cluley, Durham.

Mrs. Isabel Schell, a resident of Port Elgin for the past 5 years passed away in the General & Marine Hospital, Owen Sound, on Wednesday, April 4th, 1973. She was 73.

Mrs. Schell was born January 19th, 1900, a daughter of the late William and Jane (Bell) Scott. She was predeceased by her husband, William G. Schell.

Mrs. Schell attended Tolmie Memorial Presbyterian Church in Port Elgin.

Surviving are two brothers, John and William Scott; two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice MacKay and Miss 1973 Wellington Secord Fenton, childhood farm-boy, labourer, politician, auto dealer, business man, devoted family man, was indeed a pioneer in an era of a growing community.

He was born the son of the late Richard and Eugene Fenton on November 15th, 1899 in an Amabel Township farmhouse. After living in the Allenford, Ontario district a few short years, the Fentons moved to Saugeen Township, where the deceased attended S. S. No. 4, and S. S. No. 5, establishing life-long friendships.

At an early age, the late Mr. Fenton moved to Port Elgin and in 1920 married the former Vera Schell. Following services in the army, during the First World War, his career as a business man started in the early 1920's when he opened a garage business at the location which today houses the Municipal Offices.

So be it recorded that Wellington Fenton left to mourn, his wife, Vera Schell; sons, Murray and Rae, both of Port Elgin; daughters Jean (Mrs. William i. Campbell), Port Elgin; Edith (Mrs. Robert Dryden) Toronto; Nancy (Mrs. Robt. Thompson) Teeswater; Susan, (Mrs. Roger Hamilton), Oakville, to whom, all his area extends sincere sympathies. He was predeceased by one daughter, Mary, (Mrs. Howard Parker).

MacKENZIE—Wayne Kenneth; on Friday, January 7th, 1983, in his 37th year. Leaves to mourn his wife the former Mary Underwood of RR 5, Paisley; his parents Grant and Shirley MacKenzie of RR 3 Clifford; brothers Ken of Palmerston and Mark of RR 3; Clifford; sister Mary Ellen of RR 3, Puslinch and grandmother Mrs. Stella Grice of Harriston. Friends may call at the Hardy Funeral Home, Harriston, Saturday evening and Sunday. Funeral services will be held from the Presbyterian Church, Harriston on Monday, January 10th, 1983 at 2 pm. As your expressions of sympathy, contributions to the Mount Sinai Leukemia Research Centre or charity of your choice would be appreciated by the family.

Many Years Resident Of Saugeen Township, Mrs. Mary Hunter Dies

A well known area resident, Mrs. Mary Edna Hunter, died in Kincardine General Hospital on Friday, May 18.

Mrs. Hunter, the former Maimie Pollock, was born in Yellowknife, N.W.T. on December 19, 1911. She moved to Ontario while still an infant, and was raised by her aunt, the late Miss Annie B. Pollock of Turners.

In April, 1937, she married Clarence Hunter of Bruce Township.

Except for three years in Toronto, 1955 to 1958, and about a year in Sundridge, 1965-66, Mrs. Hunter lived all her life in Saugeen Township, where she was a member of Dunblane Church and was active in the Dunblane WMS, the Country Sisters and the South Saugeen Women's Institute.

She is survived by two sons, Alex and James, and two brothers and four sisters. She was predeceased by two brothers and an infant son.

The funeral service at the Davey funeral chapel in Port Elgin on Monday was conducted by Rev. Bruce Clark. Burial took place in Lovat Cemetery.

OBITUARIESKARCHER

Mrs. Miranda Thede Karcher, beloved wife of the late Wm. Karcher, Port Elgin, passed away on January 3, 1976, at Strathroy Middlesex Hospital after a brief illness in her 98th year.

She was born January 6, 1879, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thede, Port Elgin. She was a member of the former Evangelical Church (United Church). She leaves to mourn six children: Rose (Mrs. Ross Winninburg, Kincardine), Hazel (Mrs. Ernie Gross, Grand Bend), Elma (Mrs. Albert Scammell, Port Elgin), Stewart, of Paisley, Dorothy (Mrs. Roy Miller, Port Elgin), Helen, Galt-Cambridge. She was predeceased by a son, Carl, 1920, also surviving are 11 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at the Kent Milroy Funeral Home on February 4 at 2 p.m. officiated by Rev. Walford-Davis, assisted by Pastor Allen Vincent. Interment—Sanctuary Park, Port Elgin.