

Above, Cathy Doll got some help from James Fullerton (left) and Mary Meuser (right) while showing her curling excellence Sunday. The Southampton native made a double take-out in the eighth end of the final game to cement a win for the Port Elgin junior club. With the win, Port Elgin will join undefeated Kinrdrine in St. Thomas at the regional play-downs. Below, the team poses after the win. Right to left are: skip Andy McCulloch, vice Cathy Doll, second James Fullerton, lead Mary Meuser and "coach" Les Doll.

With only one loss in zone play, Port Elgin will be sending a team to the regional junior playdowns next month in St. Thomas. Left to right: skip Andy McCulloch, vice Cathy Doll, second James Fullerton, lead Mary Meuser, and "coach" Les Doll.

"Has anyone seen my pony?" Lisa Carrel, of Port Elgin, was certainly dressed for the occasion at the Chesley Fall Fair, on Saturday. (Prime photo)

Children's program... er-end performance/graduation exercises Sunday evening... certificates