

Flying Farmer Queen

quite a weekend for the Wilson family, of Port Elgin, who attended the Ontario Flying Farmers Convention in Chatham. Gwen Wilson (left), was chosen as Queen of the Flying Farmers, and her daughter, Sandra, was elected as President of the teen group. As queen, Mrs. Wilson will act as hostess at many of the group's functions during the next year and help Vice-President Ron Fenton, of Kincardine, plan next year's annual convention. Sandra's responsibilities include organizing activities for the teenage members of the Flying Farmers, including the annual camp-out in the summer months.

Andy McCulloch is presented with the award for outstanding 4-H member by Helen Cumming.

65th wedding anniversary 1977

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Cluley of Port Elgin celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary last week. The couple were married on May 29, 1912 at the parsonage in Port Elgin by the Reverend Becker of the town's Evangelical Church.

Mrs. Cluley is the former Matilda Louise Christman. After their wedding, the newly married pair travelled to Paisley by train to attend their wedding reception. Best man at the wedding was Francis Seiffert and the bridesmaid was Sarah Cluley.

The Cluleys farmed in Bruce and Saugeen Townships until 1954 when they retired to North Bruce and then to Port Elgin in 1967 where they reside. They have three of a family. Mrs. Howard Collins of Port Elgin; Eric Cluley of Durham and Austin Cluley of Port Elgin. They have nine grandchildren (two deceased) and nine great-grandchildren.

Highlights of their anniversary were an airplane trip by Dick Fenton; being entertained at the Fred Zimmerman cottage; a 'come-and-go' tea at the United Church House, Port Elgin and a family dinner at the Saugeen Trails.

The Beacon Times would like to join in and say a hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Cluley and to wish them many more anniversaries.!
