

Paisley Flood

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snyder celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary September 5, 1987, with a Come and Go Tea held at the Legion, Port Elgin, and a reception during the evening. Guests came from as far away as St. Catharines, Bruce Mines and Niagara Falls. Specials thanks to our children, Dorothy and Jack, Joyce, Keith and Marg, Don and Sheila, and all the grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Pic. 1 & 2 -- Paisley's main street was awash on Monday morning but traffic was venturing through at 1 p.m. when The Reporter visited. Even a motorcyclist, his feet up on the handlebars of his machine to keep dry, splashed through the flood waters.
Pic. 3 & 4 -- Anyone with any kind of boat was busy on Sunday afternoon moving rescue operation in the north end of Paisley.

Pic. 5 -- Enough water to flood a boat was an expression often used in the flooded areas last weekend but hardly enough to float this particular brand snapped by a Reporter photographer as the driver contemplated the road closed sign and flooding ahead of him in Allenford on Monday.

Pic. 6 -- Leaning hydro poles caused concern in some areas on Monday as flood waters swirled.
