Uncle Ozzie's Philosophy

(Belated Best Wishes to Margaret and Bill)

Bill Schildroth and Margaret have reached fifty years
Of marital bliss, though amidst a few tears,
We're certain, the Parson, when tying the knot
Felt a warmth in his bosom he never forgot.
Two young, happy lovers were sent on their way
O'er a path strewn with roses, albeit, some clay,
Though not always smooth, nor the grass always green,
On that pathway of life, true and faithful they've been.

'Fifty years in the future,' they're still looking young,
Expressly alert, highly thought of among
Good friends who seem countless as sands by the sea,
Beloved for their virtues and fine dignity.
Sightless eyes "catch a vision" from Heaven above,
To Margaret they're monitors sensing God's Love,
Though blind she can "see" His profound Majesty
As beauty, Celestial, to set people "free."

Hand in hand they continue, Bill, ever so near
To one whom he loves with a goodness sincere,
Which offers a challenge to all on this earth,
Whilst known of our Lord for their intrinsic worth.
Belated good wishes to Margaret and Bill,
May health in abundance your cups over-fill,
We cherish you dearly, and love you so much
While heart-throbs respond to the warmth of your "touch."
