Mr. & Mrs. Jas. Cluley
Observe 60th Anniversary

A delightful family dinner party at the Huron Restaurant, Port Elgin, marked the 60th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James Cluley, Port Elgin. Twenty seven guests were present.

Their son, Eric, of Durham, was Master of Ceremonies for the occasion. Mr. George Cluley of Port Elgin conveyed congratulations, and their granddaughter Linda Cluley, sang the Lord's Prayer. The couple were presented with a coloured television set by members of their family. Mr.

and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Toronto.

Among the many greetings received were messages of congratulations from Prime Minister Trudeau, Opposition Leader Robert Stanfield, Premier William Davis of Ontario, Mr. Robert Nixon, M.P.P., Mr. Ross Whicher, M.P. and Mr. Eddie Sargent, M. P. P.

Mr. and Mrs. Cluley were married on May 29th, 1912, at the Evangelical Parsonage, Port Elgin by the Rev. Becker.

When reminiscing a little, Mr. Cluley remarked that the day had been very wet and cold, to which his wife added, "It surely was, I had to wear my winter coat."

The Cluleys farmed for many years in Bruce and Saugeen Townships, and in 1954 built a new home at North Bruce, where they resided until 1967, when they moved to their present home on Bricker and Mill Streets, Port Elgin.

Their family of two sons, Austin of Port Elgin, Eric of Durham and a daughter, Reba, Mrs. Howard Collins of Port Elgin are all well known in the area. There are 10 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Cluley enjoy good health, and are at ease in any age group. Mr. Cluley is an avid hockey and baseball fan, having always been interested in sports.

They presently attend the Port Elgin United Church, but for many years were actively associated with the North Bruce United Brethren Church.

Mrs. Cluley always took an active part in community life. She has served as President of the North Bruce U. B. Ladies' Aid and the W.M.A., also as President of the South Saugeen W. I., and still retains a keen interest in several hobbies. She baked the anniversary cake for this occasion, and this winter added the art of weaving to her accomplishments.

A goodly number of friends called at their home on Monday of this week to wish them continued good health and happiness.

Two couples on the second of Saugeen were taken by surprise last Wednesday evening when a few neighbours dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lamont on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. A social evening was enjoyed with the two couples during which time a small gift was presented to them for the occasion, along with best wishes. Refreshments were served which brought the happy evening to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reid celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on February 22, 1992, with a limousine supper and a party at the Port Elgin Legion. Ma thanks to their family for a night to remember.
