

MUSIC PART OF HER LIFE — Mrs. Mel Black, 85, of Port Elgin, played in an orchestra as a young girl — and still does. As a member of the Borgoyne Orchestra Mrs. Black is pictured standing, in the back row. Others in the picture include, from left to right, front row, Melvin Black, her late husband, Belle McIvor, later Mrs. Andrew Muir now deceased; Irving

Grieve, Mrs. Black's brother who still plays a violin and Margaret Black who became her sister-in-law and is now deceased. In the back row are Angus Shanks, William Morrow, John Lyness; all deceased Mrs. Black (then Helen "Ellie" Grieve), and Meredith Reany who later married Agnes MacPhail's sister Mr. Raney is still living.

1972

SEELEY, Eleanor - On March 7, 1992, at the Saugeen Memorial Hospital, Southampton. Eleanor Seeley of Port Elgin in her 49th year. Beloved wife of Carl. Dear mother of Daniel of Burgoyne, Jeffrey of Pickering, Jack of Dundalk, Robert and Christel, both of Port Elgin. Also sadly missed by three granddaughters - Ashley, Dana and Noel. Also survived by her mother, Aileen Mainprize of Dundalk, and brothers Gordon and Ronald of Dundalk, and Kenneth of Calgary, and sister Linda (Mrs. Wayne Mighton) of Durham. She was predeceased by her father Ralph. Funeral services were held March 9th from the McMillan and Jack Funeral Home, Dundalk. Interment will be at the Dundalk Cemetery. Donations to the Palliative Care Unit of the Saugeen Memorial Hospital or the V.O.N., Owen Sound or the charity of your choice would be appreciated.

Deaths

LAMONT—Donald Webster, (Retired Captain, Air Canada) in Brampton on September 15th, 1991 in his 71st year. Donald Webster Lamont, husband of the former Sheila Chadwick. Father of Donna and her husband Basil Cultura, Barbara and her husband Robert Cutler, both of Toronto and Heather and her husband Thor Jepson of Calgary. Grandfather of Robbie Cutler and James and William Jepson. Brother of Kent and Alex Lamont, both of Saugeen Township, Fraser Lamont of Bruce Township, Marian (Mrs. Clarence McGillivray) of Arran Township, and Janetta (Mrs. Earl Williamson) of Hamilton. Son of the late Donald M. Lamont and the late Florence Webster Lamont. A memorial service will be conducted in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Brampton on Thursday evening at 7:00pm. Port Elgin and area friends are invited to attend a local memorial service that will be conducted in Tolmie Memorial Presbyterian Church, Port Elgin on Saturday morning at 11:00 o'clock. Interment of cremated remains will follow at Sanctuary Park Cemetery, Port Elgin. Memorial contributions to the Salvation Army or Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton would be appreciated as expressions of sympathy.

Riebel, Mildred -

On July 26, 1991 at St. Mary's General Hospital. Mildred Riebel of Kitchener in her 91st year. Dear wife of the late Joseph Riebel. Beloved mother of Inez (Mrs. Ken Crawford) of Tara, Ella (Mrs. Mac MacLeod) of Point Clark, Lois (Mrs. Guy Tremblay) of Guelph, and Gwen (Mrs. Max McDonald) of Kitchener. She is also survived by ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Mrs. Riebel was a native of Detroit, Michigan. Funeral services were held July 29th from the W. Kent Milroy Funeral Home with the Rev. E.G. Nelson officiating. Pallbearers were Jeff Fortune, Brian Crawford, Bob Crawford, Paul MacLeod, Adam Nowak and Dan McDonald. Honorary pallbearers were Irwin Thede, Carl McDermid, Eric Cluley and Austin Cluley. Interment was at Sanctuary Park Cemetery, Port Elgin.

Eileen Ribey, 1989-90 outgoing president of the Bruce Centre District Women's Institute and her secretary-treasurer, Eleanor MacLeod, are seen at last Tuesday's district meeting held in...

WIB SCHWICHTENBURG PHOTO

Mrs. Mel Black, 85, as she appears today can still play a "mean fiddle". She has five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren and leads a busy social life in Port Elgin.