

Repeat

Centennial (1974)

Five generations of family gathered in town recently - a unique gathering indeed. Pictured are baby Kristen Rachel Speedie, mother Marlene Speedie, grandmother Lilojean McDonald, great-grandmother Betty Reid and great-great-grandmother Rachel McArthur.

Mrs. Myrtle Upshall is seen here with the Distinguished Service Honor Diploma for 40 years of teaching. She taught in Bruce, Kincardine and Saugeen Townships, as well as in Southampton and Port Elgin. Mrs. Upshall retired in June of 1975. (Staff photo)

Many of those shown in this 1915 picture of The Port Elgin High School first and second year students, bear names which are as familiar in Port Elgin today, as they were 'way back then. The above picture was loaned to The Times by Mrs. Chas. Thomas, who also prepared a 100-year history of the Port Elgin Baptist Church, which appears in this week's edition of this publication.

Shown are - back row, left to right, Carl Christian, Roy Wankel, Lawrence Schrank, Oswald Thompson, Harold Upshall, Bert Cottrill, Neil Clark, Sidney Bell, Maurice Gilbert; second and third row, Alex Lamont, Herbert Ranney, Nelson Schwass, Lincoln Dahm, Edgar Ridout, Walter Miller, Morley Lymburner, John Reoch, Arthur Miller, Jim Fleming, Douglas Bell, Reginald Mann; fourth row, May Jamieson, Mary McLeod, Elizabeth Lamont, Nellie McDuff, Winnifred George, Lettie Rushton, Leigh Wells, Janet Carr, Ruby Thede, Catherine McRae, Tena Cole; front row, Flora Lamont, Lillian Thornburn, Olga Ridout, Ruth Thornburn, Edna Thede, Mabel Carr, Beth Stewart, Helen Stevens, Katie McLeod, Albert A. Nelson, Principal.

Susan and George Brown are pictured following wedding, July 20, 1991, at Port Elgin United Church. Susan is the daughter of Don and Carole Sutherland Port Elgin, and George is the son of George and Brown, of Onaping. The happy couple are residing in Port Elgin.