

Cameron Schwass, 1-1/2, of Sudbury thought petting a horse was just the best thing going at the Fair! Dad, Byron, and fair-goer Janet Miller thought so to. 1991

FROM THE PAST

This week's From the Past is courtesy of Gordon Ribey and is off the Port Elgin Fall Fair board from sometime in the late 1950s. This board was the last group who ran the Fall Fair in its former location at Lakeview Park, the current home of the Port Elgin Tourist Camp. Years later the fair would move up to near the Saugeen District Secondary School grounds, a tradition somewhat continued today as many fair-like events happen at SDSO during Pumpkinfest, the first weekend of October every year. Pictured in this photo, from left to right, are (rear): Ken Campbell, Charles Kelly, Harold Sutherland, RJ Cobean, Wes Howe, Will Williams, Moffat Jameson and Gordon Ribey; (front): Mrs. Heard, Mrs. Sutherland, Kent Lamont, Mrs. Turnbull and Mrs. Rea. If you have a photo you would like to share with our readers, drop by our office at 694 Goderich Street in Port Elgin.
