Hamer rink takes CWOSSA title

Mike Hamer's Saugeen District Secondary School curling rink will be heading to the provincial championships after taking the Central Western Ontario (CWOSSA) title recently.

Curling with Mike are Kevin McArthur-vice, Tymon Hardman-second and Scott Clarence-lead.

The Ontario championships are to be held in Sault Ste

Marie Mar. 22-25.

Hamer's rink cruised to victories of 9-3 over Centennial from Guelph and 10-4 over Bluevale from Kitchener before meeting up with Meaford in the final.

Hamer and his foursome dumped Andy Ormsby's team from Meaford by a 6-3 score.

The single knock-out CWOSSA tournament was held in Brantford at the Brantford Golf and Country Club.
