

Left, Bobbie Underwood of Southampton stands with her quilt that was made using a late 18th century technique. Bob White of Port Egeon shows her traditional pattern, log cabin quilt that was made using close to 1,000 pieces. Both will be displayed at the museum this month.

Display at county museum will feature many miniature quilts

Quilts from across the region will be showing the best of their little counties.

Miniature quilts and small heritage quilting award winners will be displayed at the Stroud County Museum from January 18 to March 17.

Two classes of Quilts will members of the Blue Mount, Sunset Quilts and Pine Barren Quilts will bring their favorite miniature quilts to compete for the awards.

The comparison of the miniature quilt award will be at the end. Although not possible to be done together with the smaller quilts because of the time they take to produce. Being a little more durable with colors and patterns isn't quite a big risk with small quilts.

"They will vary quite depending on the pattern but if you agreed to the quilting and worked with right for about three you could probably have the top layer," said Underwood.

This is the second year for the show and Underwood said it's bound to be another success.

"It was very popular last year. We were very pleased and a little bit surprised by the response they were given and not just by women, men and husbands were there too."

Bob White of Port Egeon said she's hoping to have as many quilts displayed as last year when they had 130.

She said retirement is their award is already here. She got a call from someone in Dublin who was interested in knowing more about the display.

The opening reception will be held on Tuesday, January 18 at 2 p.m. when the awards will be announced. Every Tuesday afternoon, whether participating, demonstrate how to quilt. Several can view the display Thursday's hours from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Fridays from 1-2 p.m.

Junior Tyke Junior

Members: Left to Right: Coach Bob Underwood, Scott New, Lance Underwood, Carl Thayer, Ryan New, Steve Underwood, Brandon Brown, Dave Underwood, Bob Underwood, Wayne Harris, Matthew...

Senior Tyke Senior

Members: Left to Right: Coach Bob Underwood, Matthew Underwood, Scott New, Lance Underwood, Carl Thayer, Ryan New, Steve Underwood, Brandon Brown, Dave Underwood, Bob Underwood, Wayne Harris, Matthew...