

About 60 people who travelled in 15 covered wagons on the weekend spent Saturday night at Fraser and Dorothy Lamont's farm near Underwood. The group was celebrating 10 years of travelling the old fashioned way together. Below, Jill Baird, Tobi Farrell and Meagan MacDonald were part of the group that travelled from Ripley to Underwood to Chepstow with the Wagon Train over the long weekend.

photos by Nicola Luksic

The home economics class of 1963/64 was required to model their sewing projects after completion. Back from left, Marilyn Eby, Shirley Collins, Gwen Dunning, Sharon Duck and Joanne Aldous. Front, Phyllis Gowanlock, Sheila Travis and Alison Gorrell.

The prom queen and king from 1964 were Sharon Nelson and Grant Meikle.