50th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Harvey and Sally West will celebrate 50 years of marriage on September 29th, 2000. Look and feel within from their family and friends.

Victor / Gilbert
Mr. & Mrs. Doug Victor and Mr. & Mrs. Carol Gilbert are proud to announce the marriage of Ernie & Jill on Saturday, September 25, 1987.
The couple spent their honeymoon in Ladang & now reside in Langdon Camp.

Sally and Harvey West started to farm just outside of Paisley after Harvey retired from the CNE in 1970.

Sally was originally from Chesley and met Harvey in the 1950's when she was teaching up on the Bruce Peninsula.

"Harvey was home on holidays from his work on the railroad when I met him," she said. "I think I liked him right away, even though I was four years older than him. He has a great sense of humor."

Harvey said he had left home to find work during the depression and it was a real surprise to meet Sally when he was home on holidays.

"There weren't too many women to choose from so it was fortunate for me, but maybe unfortunate for her that she liked me," Harvey said with a twinkle in his eye.

After 45 years of marriage 41-year-old Sally is sure that she chose wisely.

The couple have two daughters and lived in Montreal most of their married life. They now reside at Elgin Lodge in Port Egan.

They spend their days chatting with each other and share all their years and almost laugh each others wisdoms.

"Lily's been good to us and I think it's because of my sense of humor," said 47-year-old Harvey.

Sally and Harvey West

Harvey and Sally West have been married 55 years.
