

Organized women's groups gathered together at the Roebuck Community Centre to show off the quilting techniques learned at the training school on quilts conducted by Home Economist, Mary Michels. Over 100 women were welcomed by Joanne Thauvette the Home Economist at the Summary Day when the quilts and quilted articles made by the group were displayed as a result of the course. A film, Grannies Quilts, was much enjoyed.

WHITE LAKE QUILT FAIR

A 3 day quilt fair drew approximately 500 women from the Renfrew South District.

Over 200 quilts, some old, some new, some contemporary dating back to the early 1800s were displayed. The traditional pieced quilt seemed to be a favourite.

Quilting demonstrations of all kinds were enjoyed and much interest shown by those attending. It was a common sight to see ladies patiently counting squares and making careful notes.

Members of the Stirling Women's Institute. Quilting has been a project of the branch for many years. Some of the quilts are sold to raise funds for Women's Institute projects. Others are given away if a need arises.

What's a Quilt Fair without a cup of tea?
