

Williamsburg W.I., Dundas District, sponsored a quilt show in the Williamsburg schoolhouse. One of the quilts on display is shown by L-r back row—Hilda Whittaker and Jean Casselman; front row—Ruth Hogaboam and Alma Strader.

WI members are quilting, while visitors look at the various displays.

1984

Mrs. Nellie Fulton (right) presents the Slate River Bicentennial Wall-Hanging to Paipoonge Museum curator Mrs. Lois Heald. The wall-hanging features 96 small blocks, representing different families in the Slate River Valley and one large centre block, bearing the bicentennial logo.