

April 1991

Farmers take aim

Ed Heal/The London Free Press

Bob Bedggood of RR 2, Thorndale, says farmers are the eternal optimists but this year he feels there is little to be optimistic about, despite the fact he has his grain drill full of barley seed and ready to go if we get three or four days of good weather. "We need a long-term commitment to agriculture in this country," he said Saturday.