

A DANDY taking part in a play of the Beau Brummell epoch bows to the Queen at a garden fete which was held by the Hertfordshire Federation of Women's Institutes.

Sandringham (Norfolk) now has the list in action of three generations of one family as members for H.R.H. Princess Elizabeth joined the Womens Institute before she was seventeen. The Queens president jointly with Queen Mary who has been president since the formation of the Institute