

Sunday afternoon the Bel Canto singers provided a wonderful selection of festive music to attendance (approx. 150) at the Knox Presbyterian Church in Walkerton.

Members of the Walkerton Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints youth group went door to door last week collecting goods for the local food bank. Pictured with food bank director Neil McDonald are, from left: April Lorch, Crystal Lorch and Mary Sutherland. Also participating in the pre-Easter food drive were Teal Livingston and Cyndal Lorch and group leaders Nola Bradley and Cathy Cross.

An Ecumenical Bible School is set to go in Walkerton this summer, with full cooperation from all local churches. The school will run from August 16-20, with an anticipated enrollment of about 175 local youngsters. From left: Eleanor McLeod, Dorothy Froom, Yvonne Carroll, Victoria Carroll, Pastor Beth Conroy and Ken Schlorff.

Merrian Smith, left, and Lucille Duggan were in period dress when the St. Thomas Anglican Church kicked off its 150th anniversary with a croissant luncheon on the weekend.