

Members work on quilts

Eden-Grove Cargill Women's Institute met at Maple Court Villa - the home of Roxie Young - on Jan. 29 with 13 members and one guest present.

Debbie Young opened the meeting with the Mary Stewart Collect and the Opening Ode. Karen Thompson-Riley read the minutes of the last meeting and gave the Treasurer's report as well as the correspondence.

Two quilts were set up for the members to work on - one was a quilt that was tied and finished during the evening and the other is a quilt to be quilted over the next few weeks.

The Canada i n

Blooms will be in Toronto March 3 to 7. Walkerton Women's Institute invited our group to a meeting to be held March 9 at the Walkerton Library at 7 p.m. with a presentation by Ken Brown on osteoporosis and bone density testing.

Anyone interested in attending is to call Janet Eindiguer. Sharon Fitzsimmons was the convenor for the meeting with world affairs being her topic.

She asked all the members questions about current topics and prizes were handed out.

Roxie Young, Annie Campbell, Phyllis Arkell and Debbie Young served lunch. Our next meeting will be on Feb. 12 at the home of Debbie Young at 8 p.m. We will be packing our Valentine boxes for the shut-ins.

Ladies discuss fire prevention

BY MARY STEFFLER
WHT Correspondent

Seven members were present at the June 8 meeting of the Walkerton Women's Institute held at the library.

Janet Eindiguer thanked the ladies for coming and read a poem 'The Green Lady'.

The Opening Ode and the Mary Stewart Collect were recited in unison.

Roll call was how you practice fire prevention at home.

Evelyn Wilson

reported on the district annual meeting. There are 32 Institute branches. The ladies enjoyed supper at Greenleys in Clifford.

Marg Hedley and Clea Wilhelm joined the group to tour the new fire hall. John Markauskas and Ray MacArthur gave us the tour, explaining the equipment they use when fighting a fire.
