urging the federal government to enact legislation to make the labeling of all genetically modified food mandatory.

Members voted to purchase a book "Fighting for Home and Country". It was passed to give a donation to tsunami relief funds.

Pennies for friendship were collected.

Evelyn Wilson and Mary Hedley on the program read an article on mushrooms stating Dietsche's, from Markdale, have a mushroom habitat. They harvest three crops a year, selling to gourmet restaurants.

A contest and a lunch was enjoyed by all.

The federal WI. board meeting results were read by Janet.

The Erland Lee award will be given to two nominees, a handbook will be revised. The F.W.I.C.'s next project will be to adopt a northern community.

Resolutions that went through include F.W.I.C.

which were approved. Evelyn Wilson motioned the group give a donation to Quill. The motion was seconded by Marj Hedley. Maria Bertrand from the Walkerton Adult Learning Centre was the guest speaker for the day. She described the many roles the centre plays in the community. Following the meeting, a Valentine's lunch was served.
