Dorothy Levina Alton

~~64~~ VOL 9 66

Dorothy Levina (Tanner) Alton was born Dec. 15, 1910 on the Southline of Brant Township. She and her twin brother, Gordon, were the youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tanner. There were nine children in the family with Belva Cain of Bowmanville still living.

Dorothy started school on the Southline but later moved to Walkerton and graduated from the local high school. She then trained as a nurse at the Meyer Memorial Hospital in Buffalo, NY, where she graduated in 1933. She took an anesthesia course at the University of Buffalo and graduated with a BS degree in anesthesia, and was then employed in the operating room of the training hospital. She returned to Walkerton in 1937 and married the late Melvin Pearson.

Dorothy was an avid curler, golfer and bridge player. She was head of the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic for years and active in UCW.

She is survived by two daughters, Judith Ann and her husband Glen Grant of Mississauga, their two sons, Brian and his wife Christine and children Allison, Megan and Kaitlyn, and Gregory and his wife Lee and children Chantelle and Spencer; Saundra Elizabeth and her husband Keith Bast of Chesley Lake, and their four children, Scott Pettigrew and his wife Linda and children Katie and Tom, Pamela and her husband Roch Valeriote and children Joanna and Craig, Lee Pettigrew and his friend Dayelle and children Aidan, Alexandra and Dylan, Todd Pettigrew and his partner Vanessa, many nieces and nephews and special niece Marlene Spong.

In 1963, Dorothy and Thomas Alton were married and lived in Walkerton.

Dorothy was predeceased by her first husband Mel Pearson, and second husband Thomas Alton, her brother Edward, her twin brother Gordon, sisters Annie, Mabel, Grace, Eva and Lavina, and her parents Henry and Levina (Lines) Tanner.
