

What a very lovely evening, indeed. You were all such a bit among our participants.
Thank you once again for your generous hospitality

to the fine ladies
of the Walkerton
Women's Institute,

apr '00

thank you
very much

Reck M Owen Sound

Walkerton W to host Katim

The Walkerton Women's Ins
President Janet Eindiguer
"Windy Nights". Eleven me Bertha Napper and a donati signed a birthday card to go on March 28.

Convenor Ada Mason led computers and introduced t who show them how they Brophy thanked him and pr

Evelyn Wismer told of the ed Jennifer of the Katimavil ning to host the group to a c a solo and euchre card par p.m. Everyone welcome.

Mason reported on attend district annual is May 25 i outing to Listowel.

The next meeting is April

Solway W through sl

The members
Institute showed
New Zealand, as
Hazel Caslick h
there on three oc
visit their daughte
her husband Chris
ly.

It is quite a mo
country with lots
ful water falls and
is so blue there ar
places that woul
beautiful wall pic
hangings.

There are quite a
milking herds as th
in barns over win
can have big herds
as they can forage

The Solway Women's
members, back from le Ernest and Helen The
Huntley, Laverne Port
Brocklebank.

The Walkerton
library.

President Ma
asked for a min
and Ella Carney

Mary Wand r
call was your fa

Ada Mason a
they made at t
was purchased

Wand read a p
done by all.