

A

To the editor:

Roses are red and If violets were red
What do you think
Or Maple Creek
They'd should fro
And display these

But for those who Seek out Gerald F (CBC Radio 1, Jar
And see Brockton
As city fold gradu
We've got what it Maple Leafs? We

And if Brockton's
Don't burn up you Take your beef to
In matters you feel
And together, let's
The heartland of B

Walker
to hos

The Walkert
President
"Windy Nig
Irish joke. A Bertha Napp
signed a bir
on March 2 Convenor
computers
who show
Brophy tha
Evelyn W ed Jennifer ning to hos
a solo and p.m. Every Mason re district an outing to L
The next

All I can say is wow!!
"Thank-you all sooo
much for your hospitality"
Not only was the food great, so was your company!

Thanks again,
Scott Seroda
surrey (B.C.)

Thank you for all the work for having a really evening (Denking Amy Street Edmonton, Alberta)

Andrew Cairns

Thank You so much
For everything..

Thank-u for all your hospitality, the food was great, so was the conversations, I'll always remember Walkerton, out with Jennifer Hennebury memories.

Folkin Goffin
Thanks for this beautiful meal
was awesome
xxx

Thank you!
Your hospitality and warmth was greatly appreciated. The food was excellent! Yum!
I hope to see you
all again shortly!

Marc Goldfinger
(Ottawa) Project Leader.

Thank-you soooo much!! I had a really great time
Nathan Cooper
(Ses Natchewan)

Thank you very much for everything.
I had a lot of fun.
Rebecca Currans (Newmarket, ON)

Thank you for the really good meal
and everything else
J-Luc Guelin
(Ses-iles-Ouedes)

The Solway Women's Institute marked members, back from left: Margaret Lief Ernest and Helen Thomson. Front: Ed
Huntley, Laverne Porter, Eida Threndy Brocklebank.