

THE NICHOL CEMETERY

The Nichol Cemetery was a family burying ground on the Nichol farm. Frances Nichol and his wife Janet came from Liddesdale Scotland, in 1833, and settled on a 200 acre farm on the south east corner of Wellington Road, lot 15, in the 4th concession of Westminster Township.

A plot of ground was set aside for family burials. The cemetery is still there, with a right of way to it, although the farm does not belong to the Nichol family now.

Names and dates of death on the stones are:

Frances Nichol, August 28, 1866

Janet Nichol, his wife, 1872

Thomas Nichol, their son, 1901

Christine, his wife from Quebec, 1893

Frances Nichol, Feb. 12, 1907

Ann Cruickshank, his wife, April 25, 1903

Jenny Nichol, their daughter, April 26, 1893

Lina Nichol, 1946 ; Jean; Mary; Sarah;

Mary Nichol Cousins, wife of William Cousins, April 6th, 1864, age 34 years.

None of Adam Nichol's family were buried there, except the one daughter, Mary Cousins.

In 1964, this farm is owned by R.M. Berry.

From the Wellington Road a grove of evergreens can be seen at the back of the farm, shading these pioneer graves.
