

SPECIAL GREETINGS

PRIME MINISTER OF ONTARIO

Toronto, Ontario,
January 7, 1972.

Dear Mrs. Zoeller,

On behalf of the government of Ontario, I convey to you my warmest congratulations on this the Seventy-Fifth year of your founding of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario.

In that period the Women's Institutes and its members have made an outstanding contribution to the life of those people living in rural Ontario, while serving as a model to other similar organizations throughout the world.

The Women's Institutes have responded to needs of women in this province with imaginative and practical programs, that have succeeded because of the dedication and enthusiasm of its members.

May I add my personal wishes to your group for every possible success in the worthy programs they undertake in future years.

Yours sincerely,
William G. Davis

MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FOOD

Greetings from the Minister

I take great pleasure in extending congratulations to the Women's Institutes in Ontario on this their 75th Anniversary. I can think of no organization in this Province that has provided greater leadership, and encouragement to the homemakers and those who have come up through the Junior ranks to become homemakers. At a time when too many persons measure success in material terms, it is indeed refreshing and encouraging to be associated with an organization that is dedicated to improving the "Quality of Life". The record will show Ontario's social progress has been influenced in large measure by the good works and the constructive policies of the Women's Institutes. May these good works continue.

PRIME MINISTER PREMIER MINISTRE

"Until Canada is given the opportunity of utilizing to the full the offerings of all Canadians, this country and the people who live in it will not gain fulfillment. We cannot assume that the contribution of women will be a mere extension or even support for the contribution of men. Their performance will not only be original, it will be both competitive and complementary. We have no means of perceiving the dimensions of their offering; we know only that it will be rich, that it will be persuasive, and that it will enhance our society and all who live in it. It is an exciting prospect."

On the occasion of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario, I am pleased to offer to its members my congratulations and best wishes for continued good work.
