

Ladies' invitational bonspiel

On Wednesday, March 23rd, the Wlarton Curling Club held its annual Ladies' Invitational Bonspiel. A total of 56 ladies participated, some coming from as far as Elmira, to join in a day of curling and fun. The first draw competed for the Coulter's trophy, and it was won by a local rink, skipped by Cheri Jacob. The rest of her team included Kim Burt, Judy Glassford and Connie Poste. They took home individual pins and some lovely prizes; courtesy of Coulter's Food Market. On the eleven o'clock draw, the Grey Granite team of Thelma McDougall, Georgina McKelvie, Ellie Lozon and Heather Grahman won top honours. This foursome took home pins and lovely prizes, thanks to the sponsorship of Peter Pegg.

Winners of our Easter Egg hunt were the teams of Joyce Weir, Wlarton and Bev Velix, Durham. Did you enjoy your jelly beans girls?

Our teams showed great talent on and off the ice. It's amazing how Easter bonnets can be made with a little bit of imagination. The bonnets were judged by our sponsors and the winners were Grey Granite's Shirley Duguay's team and Dorothy Payton's team from Bluewater.

Lovely flower centerpieces, courtesy of Wendy's Flowers, were taken home by Dolores Rhodes, Helen Good, Lillian Martin, Judy Glassford, Linda Noble, Marian Otto and Dorthy Payton. Winning the door prize of an Easter Basket was Marg Campbell.

Thank you to all the ladies who helped in the kitchen and the men on the bar. Man thanks to our sponsors Coulter's and Peter Pegg- your continuing support is much appreciated. See you all next year!

Ron McTaggart, centre, from Coulter's presents the Coulter's Trophy to the Wlarton rink of left to right: Connie Poste, lead; Judy Glassford, second; Cheri Jacob, skip and Kim Burt, vice.

Winner of the 11 a.m. draw left to right are: Heather Grahman, lead, Ellie Lozon, second, Ladies' President Brenda Barham, presenting the Pegg Trophy, Thelma McDougall, skip and Georgina McKelvie, vice from the Grey Granite Club, Owen Sound.