

March 5, 1987

Marketing High School marketing students are beginning to make a name for themselves by competing in the annual state-wide business plan competition. From left to right: David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith.

Marketing students, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, and David Smith, are competing in the annual state-wide business plan competition.

Marketing students gain top marks

On Monday, February 27, 8 students from Marketing High School competed in the 1987 National Marketing Competition. Marketing students have earned top marks in the competition. As a result of their excellent preparation, Marketing students have earned a total of 100 points and have been named as the Marketing Team of the Year.

The list of the eight Marketing students who competed is as follows: David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, and David Smith. The Marketing students who competed were David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, and David Smith.

The Marketing students from Marketing High School are proud of the success of their Marketing students. The Marketing students who competed in the 1987 National Marketing Competition are David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, David Smith, and David Smith.

Vol 19 Pg 62