

June 28, 1989

Graduates

The students above all won awards at the graduation held last Wednesday. Front row left to right: Todd Stewart, Bryan White, Trevor Gilbert, Lincoln Urbshott and Michael Last. Back row left to right are: Darcy Lancaster, Rachel Gilbert, Brandee Gilbert, Jennifer Scott, Angela Ottewell and Michelle Hardman. Missing were; Genevieve Scott, Melanie Hepburn, Julie Barker, Julie Ottewell and Shannon Barfoot.

"Discovering New Horizons" was the theme of the Warton Public School Graduation held last Wednesday. Genevieve Scott introduced the guest speaker Mrs. Betty McCulloch, who with humour and sensitivity, encouraged the graduating class to meet the next phase of their education as well as they had met the first phase.

Student Trevor Gilbert thanked Mrs. McCulloch.

The following students were presented with awards:

-Bryan White and Jennifer Scott, the Ethelwyn Patterson Memorial Award for Citizenship.

-Julie Ottewell, the Wayne Swanton Award for Instrumental Music.

-Genevieve Scott, the Elizabeth Ritchie Award for Vocal Music.

-Melanie Hepburn, the Royal Bank Award for Physical Education.

-Bryan White, the Royal Bank Award for Physical Education.

-Angela Ottewell, the Tomlin Award for Family Studies.

-Rachel Gilbert, the D.J. Armstrong Memorial Award for Design and Technology.

-Michael Last, the Toronto Dominion Bank Award for Art.

-Brandee Gilbert, the Lillian Thompson Award for Public Speaking.

-Genevieve Scott, the Meata D. McIntosh Memorial Award for Special Interest and Aptitude in English.

-Rachel Gilbert, the Anne Kastner Award for English.

-Todd Stewart, the Transport Canada Staff-Warton Airport Award for French.

-Melanie Hepburn, The A.J.V. Leeder Award for Mathematics.

-Julie Barker, the Warton Rotary Club Award for Geography.

-Angela Ottewell, the Warton Public School Staff Award for History.

-Shannon Barfoot, the Warton District Lions Club Award for Science.

-Brandee Gilbert, the Women's Institute Award for General Proficiency.

-Trevor Gilbert, the I.O.D.E. Award for Progress.

In the Grade 8, Special Education Class, Michelle Hardman won the Proficiency Award and Lincoln Urbshott won the Progress Award.

Following the awards ceremony an emotional Valedictorian Address was given by Brandee Gilbert.

Vol 19
Pg 74