PURPLE VALLEY

CONGREGATION MEETING OF UNITED CHURCH

The annual congregational meeting of the Purple Valley United Church was held Thursday evening, February 4th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McLean with a fair attendance.

Rev. John Crawford opened the meeting with a scripture reading and a prayer.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted. Then the financial reports were given by Hector Howe and Mrs. Hector Coveney. These showed no strong trends up or down. The session report was given by Rev. Crawford.

Mrs. Jas. Urbshott was elected to a three-year term as steward—to complete the Board of Stewards. Jas. McLean and Allan Howe are the other two members. Will Crawford and Hector Coveney will remain as elders.

The other offices: secretary-treasurer, Hector Howe; M. and M. committee, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Howe; organist, Kaye Howe; auditors, Allan Howe and Jas. McLean; envelope secretary, Kaye Howe.

It was decided that the Board of Stewards manage the house to house canvass at their own discretion.

Rev. Mr. Crawford brought up the matter of who were the trustees of the church property. We decided that he should investigate this matter further so that this matter could be brought up to date.

It was decided to leave the salary contributions at $375.00 for this year. Also, we decided to send fifteen dollars to CKNX "Singtime" program and ten dollars to the Capital funds project.

All joined in a benediction in closing after which Mrs. McLean served a lovely lunch.

ONLY SCHOOL OPEN

The Lion's Head area was completely cut off from the rest of the Bruce Peninsula Thursday, February 25, with all the schools being closed and no mail getting through. However on Friday the main road was open allowing the mail to get through and to the best of our knowledge the Lion's Head Public School was the only one open on the Bruce Peninsula on Friday, February 26.
