

PURPLE VALLEY W.I.

Vol 8 Pg 1

The Lower Lake Andrew Hunt Club made up of a group of Wharton men had one of the most successful hunts reported this year. Of the eight deer shot, the largest weighed about 180 pounds and the smallest around the 100 pound mark. The hunters spent the full six-day season at their hunt club in St. Edmunds Township. The marksmen in the group were Jack Hatt, Larry Wright, Roland Gilbert, Corky Morgan and Elgin Rydall. Shown in the photo above with the deer are, left to right, kneeling and sitting, Mel

Heighes, Jack Hatt, Roland Gilbert, Ken Heppenstall, Harold Wright, Larry Wright, Elgin Rydall, Gail Gilbert, Barry Gilbert. Standing, left is Bill Smart; right Corky Morgan.

1968