

... WEDDING ...

GILBERT - HALEY

Pink and white gladiolias and mums decorated Millgrove United Church, Millgrove, for the marriage of Sharon Anne Haley to Clifford E.J. Gilbert on June 7, 1969. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haley, R.R. 1, Millgrove, and the groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gilbert of R.R. 5, Wiaraton. Rev. Paul Codsí officiated with Mrs. Norma Duncan at the organ and Miss Sandra Crooker singing "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with white French cotton lace to emphasize the Empire waist and the large U-shaped train attached to the back. The sleeves were full length. The headpiece was crown-shaped with eight peaks edged with white pearls and accented with sequins. The veil was shoulder length. She carried a white Bible with red roses arrayed on top and white ribbons falling from the Bible.

The maid of honour, Miss Maxine Gaddy, and bridesmaid, Miss Diane Haley, and flowergirl Miss Kelly McArthur wore spring blue gowns with white cotton lace accenting the Empire waist and A-line shaped train. The gowns were sleeveless. They wore pink sweetheart roses in their hair as headpieces. Each of the bridesmaids carried the New Testament with pink sweetheart roses and pink ribbons on top. The flower girl carried a white basket with pink sweetheart roses.

Bill Dymont was best man with Allan Gilbert and Ross Haley ushering.

The reception was held at Rock Chapel United Church with the ladies of the Church serving. Receiving the guests was the bride's mother, who wore a lime green suit dress with bone white accessories and hat. Her corsage was a yellow orchid with green netting. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a blue dress with bone white accessories and a corsage of a pink orchid with pink netting.

For a honeymoon in the United States, the bride donned a lightweight purple wool suit with bone white accessories. Her corsage was yellow roses with purple netting. The couple will reside at the groom's farm, R.R. 4, Wiaraton.

A cablegram was received from Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tildesley of Northants, England, wishing the newly married couple best wishes for the future.
