

We then proceeded to arrange our various committees for the Party which were as follows. To begin with we decided to aim for an attendance of two hundred persons.

Mrs. Disher was to take charge of all publicity such as radios, and posters to be put about the Community and neighbouring places.

Mrs. Dugan volunteered to look after the Ice Cream, chocolate milk and Cream for coffee.

Mrs. Henderson volunteered for the Strawberries and the Strawberry and Ice Cream booth.

Mrs. Orange volunteered to look after the Hot Dog booth and also the trimmings for same such as relish, mustard etc.

Mrs. Emmons was to take charge of the Home Baked Goods table.

Mrs. Corigan was to supervise the Fish Pond for the kiddies.

Mrs. Henderson suggested we have a pie & Ice Cream booth for the men, and Mrs. Ducker volunteered to take charge of this.

Mrs. Crozier volunteered to head the Grounds Committee and to arrange for lights, tables and chairs.

Mrs. Deter & Mrs. Elder volunteered to make the coffee for the coffee booth & look after the sugar, coffee etc.

Mrs. Owen volunteered to purchase the paper plates, straws, wooden spoons & paper cups for coffee, also paper serviettes and to take charge of the Pop and Chocolate milk stand.

It was decided that each committee head pick her helpers from the Institute members living near her to make it easier to plan for their booths & be responsible & along with her helpers for the decorations & erection of their booths.

Mrs. Deter and Mrs. Emmons volunteered to canvas with help. the members for donations for the Home Baked