

Vinemount

The sun shone for the Vinemount Women's Institute as they held their recent Centennial Tea. A full house enjoyed the versatility of Art Hill, a man of many hats, who offered songs and impersonations, accompanied by Bill Spira on the piano. A performance by Club 60 choir followed. A hamper donated by E.D. Smith was won by Donna Dedrick of Stoney Creek, while MaryIn Travis of Vinemount was the winner of the quilt.
