With a Voice of Singing

CHOIR

by Martin Shaw

What have we alone to offer each as a single leaf?
But the leaves make spreading branches to grow and increase.
What can weather storm and challenge when our tree is tall and strong
Let us build for the future, new friends may join our song,
Our voices join in unison to say what may be done
And the torch is ours to carry on into the years to come.

First verse written by Sir Cecil Spring-Rice.
Second & third verses written by Mary Thow, Dunning Institute - Scottish Rural Institutes

Music by Gustav Holst

I VOW TO THEE MY COUNTRY

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love,
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar, the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

There's a treasure in this land of ours, however far we roam.
In the constant heart of rural life are family and home.
There's a heritage of knowledge passed to us by those before,
Lives of love, work and wisdom, a rich and varied store.
Though the days go full and faster, through changes year to year,
This is ours to guard and care for, to give and to share.
