

THE LEE FAMILY, HOME and FARM

JAMES, continued

Isaac;

George;

James;

Margaret;

Patty;

Mary.

James was accidentally killed by a flying axehead, in the hands of one of his sons, while building the first frame house in Saltfleet Township.

James and Mrs. Lee were buried on the home farm.

Life of the early settlers was difficult, required deep determination, but yet was most rewarding. Very close friendships and assistance developed among these folk. Life was interesting, entertaining, but demanding.

A log cabin near Catabogic, Ont. (Renfrew Co.)
A possible replica of the early Lee cabin.