

Happy birthday

Members of the Stoney Creek Women's Institute, and guests, celebrated on Saturday evening the 75th anniversary of the founding, in Stoney Creek, of the Women's Institute. The WI, now world-wide, is the largest rural women's organization in the world. Clockwise from lower left are: Mrs. Lloyd Daw, president of the Stoney Creek WI; Olive Farquharson, president of the Associated Country Women of the World; Mrs. E. V. Fulton, president of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, and Miss Marjorie Lee, daughter of the late Erland Lee, a co-founder of the WI. The birthday party was held in the Sidonia Hall, Stoney Creek.

—Staff Picture