

COLOURFUL VISITORS — In August of 1953, 1200 women come from distant points to pay their respects to Stoney Creek. They were members of the Associated Country Women of the World. Four of the ladies are pictured above, from left, Ruth Jaeger, of Sweden, A. Laaksonen and E. Lindfors, of Finland, the fourth is unidentified.