

June 11/78

Stoney Creek News, Wednesday, May 28, 1986

Erland Lee Home to get painting

Erland Lee Museum Home is being presented with a painting by artist Donald Sutherland on June 3 at 11:00 a.m.

Mr. Sutherland has been the Erland Lee Museum Home's carpenter for years and is vitally interested in the home.

The presentation is taking place during Special Events Days at the home. From June 3 to 5 there will be demonstrations of crafts as well as sales of crafts, jams and jellies.

The Erland Lee Museum Home is located at 522 Ridge Road Stoney Creek.

Erland Lee museum

Museum received a special presentation from Sutherland, caretaker of the home for many years. The prints are made from his original painting. His wife, Helen, on his left, helped to show the original. With the Sutherlands are Betty Jefferson and Irene Weber. The prints are selling for $10 each. —STAFF photo.