

Erland Lee museum

The museum received a special presentation from Donald Sutherland, caretaker of the home for many years, of 100 prints made from his original painting of the home. His wife, Helen, on his left, helped to show the original. With the Sutherlands are Betty Jefferson and Irene Weber. The prints are selling for $10 each. —STAFFphoto.