

CLARENCE HOUSE
S.W.1

I very much appreciate the kind message which I have been so happy to receive from the members of the Women's Institutes of England, Wales and the Islands.

I send to you all my warmest good wishes in this your Golden Jubilee Year.

I pray that your activities, which have played such an important part in the life of our country for half a century, may prosper and flourish in the years ahead.

Elizabeth R

January, 1965