

of the country child and the country adult in particularly rural skills—in cooking, preserving, dairy work and poultry-keeping—and the large part played in the Counties by the Rural Domestic Economy Instructresses today is directly due to the W.I.'s persistence.

The keeping alive, and handing-down, of old skills

The Annual General Meeting.

Left|Above – Lunch at the Albert memorial.

Left|Below – One of the speakers.

Below – Spotlight on a speaker at the 1964 A.G.M.

