

Two musical numbers were contributed by friends and a fine paper written by Mrs. [unclear] was read by Mrs. Elvin Hill of Kenmore.

Two new members were welcomed. ^{by Mrs. [unclear]} Collection $1.75

Next meeting to be at home of Mrs. A.W. Robinson June 2 at 8.30 p.m. National Anthem, signified [unclear] and a delicious meal was served by com. [unclear] Mrs. Regge.

Beatrice Wade. Pres. 1957. Model [unclear]

Special Ratepayers S.S. 2. meeting was sponsored by W.C. in United Church Hall evening of May 21. a Wednesday, with a fine attendance to hear report of delegate

Mrs. G.E. McCaffrey, to O.E.A. Easter Convention - parents are recommended to back the teacher - hard work is still the open sesame to an education. Dr. Dunlop ^{quint} Edna suggests less palatial schools be built - perhaps minus swimming pools - and thus curtail the present heavy financial outlay in the province. Ayaskee

Morrow gave an interesting resume of her attendance at the Music Section, the highlight of which was her singing in the 300 voice choir of Ontario Secondary Schools, Conductor, the famous Dr. Cecile Bell.

The audience also appreciated hearing the Russell Music Festival Medalists, Donald McCaffrey, Diane Cochrane, ^{Dennis} Michael Rowan, Ayndee Morrow.

With Empire Day so near, we were delighted to hear Ronald Gamble recite Percy Philips' This Canada of Ours

The Committee in charge, Mrs. Albert Robinson, Mrs. L.A. MacEwen and Mrs. G.E. McCaffrey had planned and carried out a very successful meeting.