At the home of Mrs Beedie, with our Vice President at the helm, our meeting opened with the Institutes Ode in unison, with the reminder by our leader that it really is a prayer. Minutes of last meeting, also of executive meeting and a special meeting were read and approved. The roll call, a poem 'The Farm', was specially well responded to Mrs Mac Millan kindly judged the many entries, awards going to 1st Mrs Adams and Mrs Hay and hon. mention to Mrs Gamble. Mrs Walker, convenor of Community Activities asked to report on D. V. B. S., stressed the fine cooperation of the following local instructors. Mr. and Mrs. McNaught Bible Study, Mrs Twinnome music, Crafts Mr. Clarke, Mrs Beeton, Mrs Don Hay, Delbene Walker. The involvement of 79 contributed $22.12 in 50¢ fees and was recommended that next year's dates be last two weeks in July.

A fine response by those present was given to the Chairman's appeal for contributors to the exhibits at both Navan and Russell Fairs
