

attended the Annual Meeting of Women Auxiliary of Winchester Memorial Hospital - taking with them one hundred, fifty memberships - an excellent response to the canvass for same.

The Convenor Agriculture, Mrs J. Adams, was thanked for a very successful special meeting, movies and music, the district moved by Mrs. L. A. Mac Ewen seconded by Mrs Gladstone Turner and carried that Mrs. ^{R. E.} Young be the W. D. representative for two years on Community Centre Committee.

Secretary instructed to engage United Church Hall for Nov-29 for W. D. Bazaar.

Mrs. Alec Rittle volunteered to superintend the collection of money for Children's Aid Society and the following canvassers volunteered Mrs L. A. Mac Ewen, Coney D. Mrs Homer McKeown Mill St. Mrs ^{A.} Morrow 1st Ave. Mrs Gladstone Turner Castle St. Mrs Beedie Broadway: absentees Mrs Russell and Mrs M. Stanley to be asked to do Craig St and North Russell.

Our guest speaker, the District President, being unable to reach us, her place was very ably filled by a former Russell ^{matron}, just home from two years' residence at Chesterfield Inlet, 200 mi. within the Arctic Circle. Mrs. Alto. painted a vivid word picture of her experiences and environment in the far north: also showed snaps of Eskimo friends, a lovely doll dressed in sealskin and fine carved ivory miniatures. Dora was thanked by Mrs Robinson

For Current Events, Mrs R. W. Gamble gave a condensation of a chapter from "John Fisher Reports" titled "Don't Leave it to Leonard", also a summary looking at Ottawa from