

Solicitor General Joan Smith at a press conference in Toronto. It is the Solicitor General's Office that is responsible for the Fire Marshall of Ontario and fire investigations in the Province.

During the next 8 months Wade and Sacha would conduct searches at fire scenes throughout Ontario. The Fire Marshall's Office decided a Canine Team should become a permanent part of their resources. In the end Ian felt he would rather return to work in Nepean and he would retire Sacha to Russell. The Program would continue and in 1993 the Office of the Fire Marshall has 3 Canine Teams working throughout the province.

Incidentally Sacha now lives in Russell with Ian's Mom and Dad the Lorne Wade's...
