

Stoney Creek October 8th 1908.

The regular meeting of the S. C. W. I was held Oct 8th in the Institute Hall. The programme was furnished by the members of the Glanford Branch of W. I. Mrs. Daniel Reid, the District President, opened the meeting with prayer, after which the following programme was rendered.

Mrs Gage, read, a very interesting paper, on the value of interruptions,

Mrs Hicks gave a paper on the preparation of -thans giving dinner.

An instructive paper was read, by Mrs Dymos, on the benefits and educations, derived, from visiting fall fairs.

Mrs F. Felker read a paper on the Work of the East Elgin and Piano Duet was rendered by Mrs Harrigan and her daughter.

An essay was read by Miss Dickerson, entitled the Autumn of our lives.

Solo. Mrs Harrigan.

A number of questions were asked by members concerning household duties.

Moved, by Mrs McNelly, Seconded, by Mrs Felker. That a hearty vote of thanks, be tendered to the Glanford Ladies, ^{carried.}

The programme closed with the National Anthem.

The Ladies then sat down to a dainty luncheon, and a social half hour was enjoyed -

J. C. Beaum nt

at

May V Glover

Secretary.