

Stoney Creek, Jan 19th 1909

meeting of the women's Institute was held on above date, in the Forester Hall at 2.30 p.m. president in the chair. The meeting was opened in the usual manner and the minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed. The attendance was good over sixty being present.

Letter from Mrs Annie Lotteridge, thanking the ladies for their sympathy in her bereavement, was read. Moved by Mrs King. Seconded by Mrs McNeilly that we invite the Ancaster Branch to visit us at our next meeting. Carried

The fireless cooker was discussed and those who used it gave experience.

Miss Rife told how a man made one for his wife. The Report, of the women's Institute convention, held at Guelph in December was read by Secretary Miss Rife the winter delegate was then called upon and gave a very helpful talk on the Rolling Stone or how we may better our life. She emphasized the fact that the making of a life is more important than making a living.

Several questions were handed in to the Question Drawer.

Miss Rife answered the question, namely, Is the women's Institute doing all that it should do? and she pointed out the fact that some of the younger Branches are going ahead, and she
