

fall. Mrs Dr Thompson moved that the card parties be laid over. Mrs Harris seconded it. Carried

The meeting was now handed over to the Juniors to give the program and an excellent selection of solos both vocal and instrumental also readings were well rendered.

A splendid address by Mrs Almeta Smith on "Pictures and their influence" was much appreciated.

Mrs Wiedmark of the home Branch gave a good paper on "Training the young child."

The National Anthem closed the meeting after which a social half hour was spent. The good cup of tea etc provided by the convenor of the tea committee. About 90 ladies were present.

Alice E. Lee